

Participants for Talk the Walk 3 November 2010 Green spaces for healthy communities
Who participated

First	Last (sp)	Position	Organisation	Pen profile
Louisa	Allen	Skills and Employment Manager	Bromley field studies centre	Delivering a number of projects and contracts to adults and young people to enable them to achieve and gain qualifications, confidence, experience and work. louisa.allen@bromley.gov.uk
John	Breach	Chair	St Mary Cray Country Market	John helped set up a new Country Market in St Mary Cray, selling local food & crafts. He is interested in many environmental issues and works as a Sustainable Business Adviser in Bromley and London. jf.breach@ntlworld.com
Jenny	Budd	Healthy Walks Coordinator	NHS Lewisham
Caz	Burley	Garden educator		I am a garden and environmental artist working with children and adults. I work in schools, preschools and community gardens helping to enhance outside areas to become improved learning environments. cazburley@yahoo.com
Sue	Burgess	Day Opportunity Officer	London Borough of Bromley	I work for the London Borough of Bromley. I am employed as a Day Opportunity Officer working with people with a learning disability. Part of my role is to develop new activities around health.
Alex	Collings	Community Gardener	Growing Club	Playful worker and community food grower. Currently running Growing Club on Somerford and Shacklewell estate in Hackney. Likes: my neighbours. Dislikes: pesticides. abcollings@gmail.com
Lorraine	Courtenay	Allotments & Local Food Growing	London Borough of Bromley	Helped setup Greening The Grey Project at Bromley Council - helping residents to grow food in unused church grounds, housing association land, other unused land. Lorraine.Courtenay@bromley.gov.uk
Martin	Crabbe	Head of Sustainable Geography	Glebe School	I am a geography teacher at a school for students with complex needs. I am also Chair of the London Sustainable Schools Forum. I am doing a doctorate on sustainable food and communities. mcrabbe@glebe.bromley.sch.uk
Sarah-Jane	Crossman	Active for Health Coordinator	Healthy Living Services, NHS Greenwich	I coordinate the Active for Health project. Active for Health is a physical activity project funded by NHS Greenwich, providing FREE and accessible opportunities for residents across the borough. sarah-jane.crossman@greenwichpct.nhs.uk
Manmohan	Dayal	Strategic Planner	London Borough of Tower Hamlets	A strategic Planner and architect with interest in environmental and public realm issues. manmohan.dayal@towerhamlets.gov.uk
Phil	Doyle	Consultant and Designer	PLAYLINK	Phil is a co-author of the Play England's 'Design for Play': a guide to creating successful play spaces. His work on projects includes engagement and involvement with children, young people and the wider community. phil@playlink.org.uk
Nicola	Durrant	Neighbourhoods Green Project Co-ordinator	National Housing Federation	Neighbourhoods Green is a partnership programme between NHF, CABI, Groundwork, Wildlife Trusts, Natural England, Green Flag and RSLs which aims to support social landlords in improving green space.
Martin	Fidler	Artist		The simultaneity of walking, talking and thinking has stimulated my practise as an artist, designer, and teacher. I am interested in the practical ways people want to improve their living environment. mfidler05@aol.com
Jane	Fifield	Health and Well-being Projects Coordinator	Affinity Sutton	Funded by the Big Lottery to co-ordinate Activate London which encourages residents of Bromley to take part in projects on healthy eating, physical activity, mental well-being and also environmental. jane.fifield@affinitysutton.com
Annette	Hards	Architect in Education	Kent Architecture Centre	Architect involved with stakeholder and community engagement in the design of spaces and places annette.hards@kentarchitecture.co.uk
Alister	Hayes	Heritage	London Borough of Bromley	I have over 20 years experience in Bromley promoting the environment and access to it - LOOP, RING and Green Chain, circular walks with recent activities such as audiotrails for young people. alister.hayes@bromley.gov.uk
Harry	Holmes	Project Manager	Plumstead Common Environment Group	I provide solutions to improve green spaces and the built environment. I am interested in local food production, community development, low carbon initiatives for employment, training and learning. harry.holmes2006@gmail.com
Liz	Kessler	Urban designer	Freelance	Liz Kessler worked for 6 years as Public Space Co-ordinator for EC1 NDC overseeing the improvement of parks, streets and estates. She now works on a freelance basis and is a CABI Enabler. liz.kessler@btinternet.com
Caroll	Long	Parks Partnership officer	London Borough of Bromley	Responsible for The Cray valley parks projects, working with schools and community groups. Also involved with health lifestyles and run Grow time and Park time working in food growing and conservation caroll.long@bromley.gov.uk

Participants for Talk the Walk 3 November 2010 Green spaces for healthy communities
Who participated

Hedvig	Murray	Trainer	Get Growing	Trains people to grow food in their own homes using organic method and permaculture design. Hedvig loves to save seeds and re-use as much as possible. hedvig@getgrowing.org.uk
Patrick	Philipps	Head of Parks & Leisure	London Borough of Bromley
Lucy	Porter	Outreach Officer for Get Walking Keep Walking	The Ramblers	I work on The Ramblers Get Walking Keep Walking Project funded by Big Lottery fund, which aims to increase physical activity in inactive populations by organising walks around the local community. lucy.porter@ramblers.org.uk
Trevor	Pybus	Partnership Co-ordinator	Phoenix Community Housing	I got the pleasure of developing a Playbuilder/Lottery playground for young people in Downham – and I receive the wrath of some local people in developing the playground for young people in Downham Trevor.Pybus@phoenixch.org.uk
Amy	Rogers	Parks Partnership officer	London Borough of Bromley
Jonathan	Schifferes	Analyst	new economics foundation	I work for the new economics foundation as a consultant on regeneration, specialising in evaluating the social impacts created by various projects.
Aidenne	Silke	Mental Health and Environment	NHS Greenwich & Greenwich Council	Project Manager for Feeling Good About Where You Live - research project looking at the links between the built environment and mental wellbeing at community level. aideen.silke@greenwichpct.nhs.uk
Louise	Simpson	Park Development & Community Partnerships Manager	London Borough of Bromley	In my role as Park Development & Community Partnerships Manager at Bromley I manage Park Development, Volunteers, Friends, Allotments and Grass Roots Sport Louise.Simpson@bromley.gov.uk
Sarah	Smith	Community Programme Manager	Groundwork	As CPM for GWK London I oversee a variety of community focused projects, all with the aim of enabling local communities make positive environmental improvements to their neighbourhoods. sarah.smith@groundwork.org.uk
Andrew	Stuck	Managing Consultant	Rethinking Cities Ltd	As your host, it won't come as a surprise to you that I like bringing people together in the desire of making practical and strategic connections that get more people walking and improving their health and wellbeing.
Adam	Thomas	Landscape Architect	Amazea	Landscape architect worked in public, voluntary and private practices. Now has small practice working on parks, play areas and more design and build projects in partnership with artists and craftsmen. atld@phonecoop.coop
Danel	van Wyk	Community dietitian	Bromley PCT	Community dietitian that is working on projects with the public health dietetic team. Reason for attending is to get more information on green spaces and free walking groups. danel.vanwyk@bromleypct.nhs.uk